

Carlons - Mt Jenolan walk, August 2012

Excellent views from the Gaspers

The Cox's River - it was pleasant in the sun, but not in the water

This walk was in the Wild Dog Mtns where the terrain is steep (with 900 m relief) and sprinkled with Myles Dunphy's place names. Winter was a good time, except for the two crossings of the frigid Cox's River. Matthew led the walk.
